'Guru, Dada, Mawali, Abe O' these are the names to call him (Anil Kapoor). He had never been given a name. A child is given a name by parents, but he was that unwanted child whose very birth saw him being thrown into the dustbin - uncared for in this cruel world - His upbringing in such a surrounding saw him grow into a dangerous piece of dynamite, money being all that was needed to ignite him. He does any dirty, rotten or cruel job assigned to him by Jaikal (Amrish Puri). Kameshwari (Rohini Hatangadi) finds an enemy in the form of an innocent girl Jyoti (Juhi Chawla). To teach a lesson to her enemy, Kameshwari buys over this dangerous dynamite (Anil Kapoor), through whom she succeeds in inflicting an incurable wound on Jyoti. Jyoti decides that she should ask for a cure from the very same person who inflicted the wound. In his (Anil Kapoor), aimless life she creates a goal for which he can work for. She gives him a sweet name. Deepak. Jyoti and Deepak come together to start afresh this journey of life. This sudden change in Deepak is not to the liking of Jaikal - who stands against Deepak. It is said that in the war of good and evil, it is good that wins. But some times this win seeks such a great sacrifice that the humanity is shocked.
